

Characteristics:

Dark amber colour with intense oak and Oloroso Sherry aromas. A selection of rare Sherries grown in Macharnudo vineyards are aged and concentrated in American oak casks for an average of 20 years in a limited Solera of 18 butts founded in 1905.

The perfect dressing for salads, combined with extra virgin olive oil. Ideal to aromatized sauces or mayonnaise. The best ingredient for macerating meat and fish. Sherry vinegar should be used sparingly due to its intensity and concentration
