Viño de familia AS Viñas 2019

As Viñas 2019 It is a wine from Albariño, Treixadura and others. Old vineyards bought over the years in the town of Gomariz. This wine comes from the centuries-old vines of As Viñas. A parcel wine, that is to say from a single plot planted in 1926 with a wide mix of varieties and partially re-grafted in 2010, eliminating the torrentés. Currently the Treixadura and Albariño are 90% of the surface.

It is the definition of a great aging wine, deep, structured, flavorful and elegant. The nerve and aromatic intensity is provided by the Albariño. The structure and elegance, the Treixadura. Originality, minority grapes. The unprecedented texture on the palate is from the Gomariz clay soils. The structure of the Gomariz xistos highlights the mineral notes, fused together with a great acidity that lengthens the wine in the mouth. It came with finesse, elegance, intensity and complexity.

This vintage, without winter cold and little rains in spring, favored sprouting and advanced the wine-growing cycle. With a dry and very warm spring, until in the first half of June it shook us with a great storm and problems of mildew in bloom. A cooler summer followed, with rains before harvesting and a sunny September with cold nights.

It is the Gomariz parcel map, where you can see part of the parcels that make up the As Viñas estate. It is the definition of the origin, of its historical plots and exceptional Crus.

Winemaking

This year with little winter cold, warm spring, hot summer with cold nights, it gave us a sweetness-freshness balance, very good. Long-lived, savory and elegant year of wine. Fermentation in new demi-muid by plots, which were mixed one year before bottling.

Tasting Notes

High intensity aromas on the nose. Notes of flowers, fruits, pastries, spices, mineral memories.

Balanced mouth, with texture, fresh, direct, elegant. Very long and intense finish. Wine with character and unique that improves in the bottle.
